OSBORNE HEATH

Ranmoor has been owned by the same family since 1991, who have improved the house whilst maintaining a wealth of original features including the doors and fittings, staircase, coving, fireplaces and picture rails plus a garden with cherry and apple trees and hedges to screen and create privacy.

The ground floor has separate living and dining rooms, with each room having a feature fireplace and double French doors leading out to the garden terrace. There is also a traditional country style kitchen with dining space and elevated views of London, a study, conservatory, utility room and two WC's.

Upstairs is the principal bedroom with a walk-in wardrobe and shower room, three further well proportioned bedrooms with built-in wardrobes and a four piece traditional bathroom. The loft has been converted into a hobby room with power, TV and pull-down ladder.

To the front of the house is a carriageway driveway with parking for several vehicles and a double garage. The large landscaped rear garden faces south and has mature shrubbery, a large terrace, herb garden and two lawns backing onto the botanical gardens of Royal Holloway.

Englefield Green is a highly-regarded village with a pretty village green and cricket ground, plus home of popular private schools Bishopsgate and St Johns Beaumont. The area has a good range of shops catering for day-to-day needs, along with great restaurants and pubs. More extensive amenities are available in the nearby towns of Egham, Windsor and Staines. Englefield Green is well placed for access to the M25, M3, M4 and Heathrow Airport. Rail services are available at nearby Egham, Staines, Virginia Water and Windsor stations. Windsor Great Park is nearby and great for horse riding, cycling and walking.
